

Appointment of Michael Fairbairn as an Executive Director in the Client Advice Team at North Capital Management

North Capital Management is a leading independent multi-family office that offer bespoke investment management solutions and advice to wealthy individuals and families across the UK and overseas.

Brian O'Connor, Chief Executive of North Capital Management

"We are delighted to welcome Michael to the team at North Capital. Michael's breadth of experience and knowledge will boost our advisory team's capability across a range of client focused activities. Michael's experience of investing in venture capital is helpful and his arrival coincides with client interest for private market allocations increasing more recently. It is encouraging to be able to attract an individual of such caliber to join our expanding team and help us serve the sophisticated needs of our growing client base."

Brief biography and comment from Michael Fairbairn

Michael brings over a decade of experience across financial markets. Prior to joining North Capital Michael co-founded a venture capital platform focused on the Climate and HealthTech sectors and has invested in around 25 private companies throughout angel funding rounds. He previously was responsible for advising on multi-asset class portfolios for entrepreneurs, family offices and endowments at both J.P. Morgan and Goldman Sachs, having commenced his career as a European Equity research analyst with Janus Henderson and Olivetree Financial.

Moreover, Michael is an ambassador for philanthropic causes in the UK and Asia, exposing him first-hand to issues top of mind for clients. Michael holds the CISI Investment Advice Diploma (IAD), an Honours degree from University College London (UCL), and is a keen supporter of Scotland Rugby and India Cricket.

"I'm proud to join North Capital Management at such a pivotal time. My focus is going to be looking after clients, whilst helping to enhance the broader client proposition during this period of exciting growth."
